

CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OF HUTTIG BUILDING PRODUCTS, INC.
As of January 28, 2014

I. PURPOSE OF THE COMMITTEE

The primary purpose of the Nominating and Governance Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Huttig Building Products, Inc. (the "Company") shall be to recommend to the Board individuals qualified to serve as directors of the Company and on committees of the Board; to advise the Board with respect to the Board composition, procedures and committees; to advise the Board with respect to the corporate governance principles applicable to the Company, as well as ongoing developments relating to governance matters; and to oversee the evaluation of the Board.

II. COMPOSITION OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors who qualify as independent directors (each an "Independent Director") as determined in accordance with applicable laws, the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("NASDAQ") or any other stock market on which the Company's securities are listed from time to time.

The members of the Committee shall be elected annually to one-year terms by majority vote of the Board at the first meeting of the Board following the annual meeting of stockholders. Vacancies on the Committee shall be filled by majority vote of the Board at the next meeting of the Board following the occurrence of the vacancy. No member of the Committee shall be removed except by majority vote of the Independent Directors then in office.

III. MEETINGS AND PROCEDURES OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall fix its own rules of procedure, which shall be consistent with the Bylaws of the Company and this Charter. The Committee shall meet as frequently as circumstances require, which, at a minimum, is expected to be at least once a year, or more frequently as the Committee may from time to time determine is appropriate. Members of the Committee will strive to be present at all meetings. The Board shall designate one member of the Committee as its Chairman. The Chairman of the Committee or a majority of the members of the Committee may also call a special meeting of the Committee. A majority of the members of the Committee present in person or by means of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other shall constitute a quorum. The Committee may also act by written consent provided that all members of the Committee execute the resolution or other instrument evidencing the action of the Committee, whether on one document or in counterparts.

An appropriate opportunity should be provided for the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer to provide input on matters to be considered by the Committee, as determined by the Chairman of the Committee.

The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company, the Company's outside counsel, or the Company's independent auditor to attend any meeting of the Committee (except in those meetings designed to qualify as "executive sessions" in which meetings no members of management shall be present), or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.

The Committee may form subcommittees for any purpose that the Committee deems appropriate and may delegate to such subcommittees such power and authority as the Committee deems appropriate within the scope of the Committee's authority; provided, however, that no subcommittee shall consist of fewer than two members; and provided further that the Committee shall not delegate to a subcommittee any power or authority required by any law, regulation or listing standard to be exercised by the Committee as a whole.

Following each of its meetings, the Committee shall deliver a report on the meeting to the Board, including a description of all actions taken by the Committee at the meeting and highlighting any matters requiring decision-making by the Board. The Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which minutes shall be maintained with the books and records of the Company.

IV. DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE

A. Board Candidates and Nominees

The Committee shall have the following goals and responsibilities with respect to Board candidates and nominees:

(a) To establish procedures for evaluating the suitability of potential director nominees proposed by management, other members of the Board or shareholders.

(b) To recommend to the Board the director nominees for election by the stockholders or appointment by the Board, as the case may be, pursuant to the Bylaws of the Company, which recommendations shall be consistent with the Board's criteria for selecting new directors as set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Principles. Directors who also serve as Chief Executive Officers should not serve on more than two public company boards in addition to the Board, and other directors should not sit on more than four public company boards in addition to the Board. The members of the Audit Committee should not serve on more than two other audit committees of public companies.

(c) To review, in consultation with the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, the suitability for continued service as a director of each Board member when his or her term expires, when he or she has a significant change in status, including but not limited to an employment change, or when the director offers to submit his or her resignation in accordance with the Company's retirement policy then in effect, and to recommend whether or not the director should continue to serve and be renominated.

B. Board Composition and Procedures

The Committee shall have the following goals and responsibilities with respect to the composition and procedures of the Board as a whole:

(a) To review annually with the Board the composition of the Board as a whole and to recommend, if necessary, measures to be taken so that the Board reflects the appropriate balance of knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity required for the Board as a whole and contains at least the minimum number of Independent Directors required by the NASDAQ or any other stock market on which the Company's securities are listed from time to time.

(b) To review periodically the size of the Board and to recommend to the Board any appropriate changes.

(c) To make recommendations on the frequency and structure of Board meetings.

(d) To make recommendations concerning any other aspect of the procedures of the Board that the Committee considers warranted, including but not limited to procedures with respect to the waiver by the Board of any Company rule, guideline, procedure or corporate governance principle.

C. Board Committees

The following shall be the goals and responsibilities of the Committee with respect to the committee structure of the Board:

(a) To make recommendations to the Board regarding the size and composition of each standing committee of the Board of Directors, including the identification of individuals qualified to serve as members of a committee, including the Committee, and to recommend individual directors to fill any vacancy that might occur on a committee, including the Committee.

(b) To monitor the functioning of the committees of the Board and to make recommendations for any changes, including the creation and elimination of committees.

(c) To review annually committee assignments and the policy with respect to the rotation of committee members and/or chairmen, and to report any recommendations to the Board.

(d) To recommend that the Board establish such special committees as may be desirable or necessary from time to time in order to address ethical, legal or other matters that may arise. The Committee's power to make such a recommendation under this Charter shall be without prejudice to the right of any other committee of the Board, or any individual director, to make such a recommendation at any time.

D. Corporate Governance

The following shall be the goals and responsibilities of the Committee with respect to corporate governance:

(a) To develop and thereafter review from time to time, but no less frequently than annually, the corporate governance principles adopted by the Board to assure that they are appropriate for the Company and comply with the requirements of the NASDAQ or any other stock market on which the Company's securities are listed from time to time, and to recommend any desirable changes to the Board.

(b) To identify for the Board potential matters for review to help insure that the Company has in place an appropriate set of internal governance procedures and that such procedures are operating effectively. Once identified, the Committee shall, to the extent appropriate, assist in framing the scope of the review to be undertaken and make a recommendation to the Board as to the appropriate body within the Company to whom such review may be assigned.

(c) To consider any other corporate governance issues that arise from time to time, and to develop appropriate recommendations for the Board.

(d) To report regularly to the Board on such matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities as the Board deems appropriate.

(e) To review and assess the Charter of this Committee on a periodic basis and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

E. Evaluation of the Board

The Committee shall be responsible for overseeing the evaluation of the Board as a whole. The Committee shall establish procedures to allow it to exercise this oversight function.

V. EVALUATION OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall, on an annual basis, evaluate its performance under this Charter. In conducting this review, the Committee shall evaluate whether this Charter appropriately addresses the matters that are or should be within its scope. The Committee shall address all matters that the Committee considers relevant to its performance, including at least the following: the adequacy, appropriateness and quality of the information and recommendations presented by the Committee to the Board, the manner in which they were discussed or debated, and whether the number and length of meetings of the Committee were adequate for the Committee to complete its work in a thorough and thoughtful manner.

The Committee shall deliver to the Board a report setting forth the results of its evaluation, including any recommended amendments to this Charter and any recommended changes to the Company's or the Board's policies or procedures.

VI. INVESTIGATIONS AND STUDIES; OUTSIDE ADVISERS

The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities, and may retain, at the Company's expense, such independent counsel or other advisers as it deems necessary. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain or terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms, such fees to be borne by the Company.
