

CORRECTION: AZEK BUILDING PRODUCTS AND HUTTIG BUILDING PRODUCTS EXPAND THEIR PARTNERSHIP

Chicago, Ill. – October 2, 2019 — AZEK Building Products and Huttig Building Products (Nasdaq: HBP) have announced a new partnership intended to serve the Pacific Northwest. Huttig Building Products, one of the nation’s largest wholesale distributors of millwork and specialty building products, plans to offer the full line of TimberTech® outdoor living and AZEK® Exteriors products to its dealer network in key markets throughout Washington and Oregon.

“We’re pleased to announce this strategic partnership with AZEK and are sure it will provide immediate value,” said David Shanda, Huttig’s Regional Vice President. “AZEK’s steadfast commitment to quality products complements our existing product portfolio allowing Huttig to offer an unmatched value proposition in the Pacific Northwest.”

The TimberTech outdoor living and AZEK Exteriors portfolios of products, under the AZEK Building Products umbrella, provide customers with a range of high performance, low maintenance alternatives to wood. The company is dedicated to offering premium, sustainable materials that enhance the beauty of the home’s exterior and that are supported by industry leading warranties. Products include capped polymer decking, capped composite decking, composite and aluminum railing, PVC trim and more.

“We are thrilled to extend our relationship with Huttig. They’ve been an outstanding partner of ours and are a natural fit as we look to expand our distribution network,” said Joe Ochoa, President of AZEK Building Products. “Huttig has a demonstrated ability to service a variety of dealer customers through value-add programs and a continuous passion for our industry.”

AZEK Building Products is headquartered in Chicago, IL and operates multiple manufacturing and R&D locations across the United States. Huttig Building Products is an established distributor of building materials, serving locations throughout the United States for 135 years.
